

Our Priceless Prince Fr. Dunston

*You oh great ! Lived as a pure soul,
To serve God and people were your sole goal.
You believed that one needs to live life with true love.
You are a blessing who came all the way from above.*

*A man of prayer, humility and simplicity you are.
Your valour and patience, the nations speak so far.
Your lovable words and deeds worked as a medicine
To the poor, needy and the helpless citizen.*

*"Laugh at you mistakes", you said.
Let that insightful words spread
Throughout the world and live forever more,
The world misses you as your presence is not here anymore.*

*Oh beautiful soul! The lover of nature,
You paved a way to each and every creature.
Oh purest of purest soul! You preached through your practice,
It is such a wise and wonderful tactics.
Oh! Here you are, now as a saint,
Nothing compares to your never ending quaint.*
